

Linked learning theme: I do like to be beside the seaside

Summer 1 term, Year 1

History – Changes in living memory. Significant local person: Elizabeth Farrer.

Prior knowledge

In EYFS, children have learnt about past and present events in their own lives and in their family members' lives.

Core knowledge

- Scarborough is a coastal town and was the first holiday destination.
- Scarborough has changed over the last fifty years.
- Elizabeth Farrer discovered the spa water in Scarborough.

Key Skills

- I know where the people and events I study fit within a chronological framework.
- I can ask and answer questions, choosing and using parts of stories and other sources to show that I understand key features and events.
- I can identify different ways in which the past is represented.
- I understand some ways in which we find out about the past.

Vocabulary

Scarborough	Difference	Spa water	Present
Significance	Before	Old	Continuity
Similarity	After	Past	Change
Cause

Learning Outcomes

- I know where the people and events I study fit within a chronological framework.
- I can identify similarities and differences between ways of life in different periods.
- I can use a wide vocabulary of everyday historical terms.